

WATER, WATER ANYWHERE? (intro)

Area: Living Environment

Grade: 6-8

Time Frame: 2-4 days

Ms. M. Morrison

Content Standards:

HS.Human Sustainability

... Examples of key natural resources include access to fresh water (such as rivers, lakes, and groundwater), regions of fertile soils such ... among management of natural resources, the sustainability of human populations, and biodiversity.

HS-ESS3 Earth and Human Activity

... Examples of key natural resources include access to fresh water (such as rivers, lakes, and groundwater), regions of fertile soils such ... among management of natural resources, the sustainability of human populations, and biodiversity.

Professional Standards: Competency 3c - Engaging students in learning

Motivation: Powerpoint - "Why do we need water

Assessment/Performance Task/ Learning Activities

- Crossword puzzle on the water cycle- completion in specified time
- <http://wateruseitwisely.com/kids/games>
- This website will give the students options to play and use an interactive site to further enrich their understanding on how to use water wisely. Giving them options will let me see where their interest lies on this subject and serve as a means of assessment and analysis.

